

DEATH OF CAPTAIN CLARK

Mr. R. W. Clark (Senior - Inspector of -Factories) has received information from America that his son, Captain Thomas Hutchinson Clark, who was in charge of a freight lighter, died on June 6, as the result of an accident. He was hoisting freight when a rope slipped and severed one of his feet at the ankle. The accident happened on March 5, and the sufferer was taken to a hospital, where he remained till his death. A widow and five children are left.. Captain Clark was well known and highly-respected in South Australia.

Mr. R. W. Clark (Senior Inspector of Factories) has received information from America that his son, Captain Thomas Hutchinson Clark, who was in charge of a freight lighter, died on June 6, as the result of an accident. He was hoisting freight when a rope slipped and severed one of his feet at the ankle. The accident happened on March 5, and the sufferer was taken to a hospital, where he remained till his death. A widow and five children are left. Captain Clark was well known and highly-respected in South Australia.